WASHINGTON LETTER.

[From our Regular Correspondent.] WASHINGTON, D. C., October, 16 1893 .- Not since the memorable silver debate began in the senate has the outlook for passing a financial measure that will receive the vote of every democratic Senator been as bright as it is at this writing. The failure of the attempt to compel the senate to vote by holding a continuous session, which was a foregone conclusion, has convinced those democratic Senators who were pledged to do their bets to secure the passage of the Voorhees bill that unconditional repeal is under circumstances an impossibillity and they ask for the first time taking part in conferences held for the purpose of reaching an agreement upon a compromise that can be passed as a distinctively democratic measure, and there is the best of reasons for the prediction that such a measure will this week be passed by the Senate. President Cleveland is not taking

After he has provided himself with his home paper, the next consideration of those who are not within easy reach of a first-class daily newspaper should be to select a first-class weekly newspaper supplying all the general news of the world and paying special attention to features which are of particular interest to the household and the farm. Just such a paper is The Weekls Constitution, published at Atlanta, Ga., and having a circulation of 156,000 copies a a week, the largest of any weekly newspaper published in America. It is essentially a farmers paper and stands at the head of the weekly press in this country. Its agricultural department alone is worth the subscription price of the paper, while it numbers among its contributors such well known names as-
